No. 1219

RESOLUTION

- WHEREAS, the Stockbridge-Munsee Community is a federally recognized Indian Tribe in the State of Wisconsin and as such is a sovereign nation possessing certain inherent rights, and
- WHEREAS, employment for Stockbridge-Munsee people is an important resource and is a unique and special right which should be reserved, and
- WHEREAS, the Stockbridge-Munsee Tribal Council believes that it is of crucial importance to create employment and training opportunities for their own members and for other Indians on or near the reservation, and to attempt to eliminate discrimination against Indian people, now
- THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the Stockbridge-Munsee Tribe under authority of Article VII, Section 1 (f) of the Stockbridge-Munsee Constitution and By-Laws, hereby enact an Ordinance entitled the "Tribal Employment Rights Ordinance" (TERO), which establishes a Tribal Employment Rights Office, a Tribal Employment Rights Commission, and establishes guidelines for operations.
- BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that adoption of said TERO Ordinance by this resolution shall negate the previously adopted TERO Ordinance dated July 27, 1987, by Resolution #1046.
